ONONDAGA

Baptist

ASSOCIATION,

Held at

NEW YORK,

1890.

CONSTITUTION.

I.—This union of churches shall be known as the ONONDAGA BAPTIST ASSOCIATION, and shall be composed of delegates chosen from and by the churches which they represent.

II.—It shall be the object of this Association to promote the fellowship and growth of Baptist Churches within its limits, and to advance the kingdom of Christ.

III.—This Association shall hold an annual meeting to which each church belonging to the body may send its Pastor and three additional members as delegates, and one additional delegate for each one hundred or fraction thereof in addition to the first hundred members.

IV.—The officers of the Association shall be a Moderator, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. Each of whom shall be chosen annually. The same person shall not be Moderator two years in succession.

V.—The Associational year shall close with the last day of July, and the annual meeting shall be held in the month of September, at such time and place as the body may determine.

VI.—Each church shall report to the meeting by an annual letter, but the full statistics shall be sent to the clerk within two weeks after the close of the Associational year.

VII.—This body shall exercise no authority over the churches composing it, but it shall receive and continue in its connection those churches only whose faith and practice it approves. Moreover, it shall be its right and duty to make such suggestions to these churches as it may deem expedient, and to institute such inquiry into their principles and practices as may be essential for its own integrity.

VIII.—A three-fourth vote of the delegates present and voting shall be required to receive or exclude a church.

IX.—Churches desiring to unite with the Association must apply by letter and two delegates, and on giving evidence of being sound in doctrine and correct in practice, and of having a proper and sufficient field for labor may be received.

X.—The corporate powers of this Association shall be vested in a board of nine trustees, to be elected by ballot by this body. Said board to be divided into three classes, one of which shall expire annually.

RULES OF ORDER.

I.—The usual parliamentary rules governing deliberative assemblies shall be observed.

II.—At the first session of the Association the Moderator of the previous annual meeting, or in his absence the Clerk, shall appoint a committee of three to nominate officers, which committee shall report at the close of the opening sermon, and if the nominations are confirmed by a majority vote the newly elected officers shall enter at once upon their duties.

III.—The Secretary may appoint an assistant Secretary.

IV.—Ministers and delegates from other bodies may be invited to a seat with the Association, and debate on all questions, but vote on none.

V.—The reading of the letters from the churches shall follow the election of officers.

VI.—The Committee on Arrangements shall present their report for approval.

VII.—A committee to recommend the time, place, preacher and alternate for the next annual meeting shall be appointed on the afternoon of the first day.

VIII.—The following committees to report at the next annual meeting shall be appointed, on the morning of the second day, by the Moderator, subject to the approval of the body: On Obituaries, on the State of Religion in the Churches, on Associational Missions, on Arrangements for the next Annual Meeting, on Sunday-Schools, an Auditing Committee, and a Committee on Resolutions.

IX.—At least one hour of public service shall be accorded to the women of the Association for the consideration of missionary interests.

X.—At the opening of each session, the minutes of the preceding shall be read, and those of the last session before it closes.

XI.—The Secretary shall receive twenty-five dollars annually for his service.

XII.—Amendments of the constitution or rules of order may be adopted at any annual meeting by unanimous vote, or by a two-third vote if the amendment has been proposed at a previous regular meeting.

MINUTES.

The Sixty fifth Anniversary of the Onondaga Baptist Association was held with the Baptist Church of Camillus, beginning at 10.30 A. M., on Sept. 11, 1890.

Rev. S. T. Ford, the Moderator of the preceding year, conducted the opening exercises, consisting of the singing of the Doxology, an invocation, the singing of "How firm a foundation," the reading of the 85th Psalm by Rev. N. W. Wolcott, and prayer by Rev. F. D. Fenner.

Bro. J. M. Carpenter, Rev. George E. Stevens and Dea. E P. Brayton were appointed to nominate officers for the coming year. After singing "Majestic sweetness," Rev. R. E. Burton preached the opening sermon from Psalms 85 : 6,—"Wilt thou not revive us again, that thy people may rejoice in thee?"

The following report of the nominating committee was adopted: For Moderator, Rev. Thomas Rogers, D. D.; Secretary, H. H. Sanford; Treasurer, D. A. Munro, Jr.

The report of the committee of arrangements was approved.

An invitation, extended to visiting brethren to take part in the deliberations, was accepted by Rev. George H. Brigham, D. D., Rev. Halsey Moore, D. D., Rev. H. S. Loyd, D. D., Rev. A. L. Freeman, Rev. J. H. Dudley.

After listening to seven of the church letters, prayer was offered by Dr. G. H. Brigham, and the Association adjourned to meet at 2 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The reading of the letters was completed. Rev. J. H. Dudley, in a brief address, urged the reading of religious and denominational papers. The following report on the state of religion was adopted:

While there has been in our churches a numerical gain of 293, there has been a loss of 213, leaving a net increase of 80.

One hundred and sixty-two members have been received by baptism, two more than last year; 46 of these were added to the Fayetteville church, 20 to the Baldwinsville church, and 22 to the Immanuel, 21 to the First, and 19 to the Delaware St. churches of Syracuse. Among the young churches, a special blessing seems to attend the Immanuel, the Delaware St. and the Union churches of Syracuse.

From 11 of the 23 churches no baptisms are reported. Bridgeport, for the second time, fails to report by letter. The little church at Vesper still holds the fort and prays for reinforcements. We rejoice that the Onondaga church has once more a standard bearer upon the hill top. From the semi-ubiquity of Bro. Wolcott Apulia claims him as pastor; so that with Bro. Gage as acting pastor at Fabius, all of our churches except Bridgeport and Vesper have an under-shepherd. The zeal of some of our smaller churches seems heroic. While we fully believe that it is the duty as well as the privilege of the strong to help the weak, yet, in our Association, at least, experience seems to show that dependance upon outside assistance tends to weaken rather than to build up a church. With a firm faith in God, and a clear sense of personal obligation, two can put ten thousand discouragements to flight. We are glad to see that nearly all our churches are free from debt, and that those who are "lengthening their cords" are wisely caring first to "strengthen their stakes."

While our Sunday-schools show a steady advance, we should not have any fear that a more rapid growth would be in the slightest degree detrimental to their health. And yet it is a very suggestive fact that of the 162 baptisms, 123 were from the Sunday-schools.

Our young people's societies plainly have a mind to work, but would not their advisers render them more valuable assistance by laying out for them more practical and definite lines of work? For our own church expenses the average per member is $10.50, and for all the other means of advancing Christ's kingdom $1.30 per member. Comparing these amounts with what each one expends for himself, does not a most startling call come to us to consecrate anew mind and heart and purse to carry out the Great Commission?

Rev. W. C. Johnson welcomed the new pastors, Rev. C. Myers and Rev. F. D. Fenner. Dr. C. S. Hickson, Brn. Eli C. Brayton and E. D. Sherwood were appointed the committee on the next annual meeting. Rev. S. T. Ford gave a report of the missionary work in the Association, and the subject was further discussed by Rev. N. W. Wolcott, Rev. George Harrison, Rev. R. E. Burton, Rev. G. E. Stevens, Rev. W. C. Johnson, Rev. L. L. Gage and Rev. A. L. Freeman.

During the past year the State Convention has appropriated $100 to Rev. J. S. Blanden, $100 to Rev. G. E. Stevens, $50 to Rev. W. C. Johnson, and $50 to Rev. George Harrison. By the efforts and encouragement of Rev. R. E. Burton, the Plank Road church was enabled to pay its debt. Other churches which have needed help are now self supporting.

The following report of the Sunday-school committee was presented by Bro. William Sears:

There are 27 Baptist Sunday-schools in this Association. Of these, 21 are regularly organized church schools, and six are missions. These 27 schools have a total membership of 4,239. This number is divided into three classes—158 are officers, 322 teachers and 3,759 scholars. During the last year 123 of these have been baptized, and become members of our churches, thus joining that great army that is marching on to conquer the world.

It is not possible for us to mention the special work or features of all the different schools, but a few things are worthy of notice.

One school reports 34 of its members baptized during the past year. This is not a city school and is, therefore, especially worthy of mention as the banner school.

One school that has heretofore reported a membership of 250, now reports about 400. This is the banner school in growth. This school and one other in the Association are very strong in having a number of large adult Bible-classes. We could heartily wish that these features could be seen in every school in the Association.

Two new missions have been started during the year. These should be the special care of our churches. They become tributaries to the churches and reach many who would be otherwise untaught in the word.

There is need of this mission work. Our County Missionary, during the last summer, found children in this county 16 years of age who have never been inside a Sunday-school room. Other families were found where children had reached the ages of 10 and 12 years, and not one in the whole family had ever been inside of a Sunday-school.

If we would keep an eye on our own school we should look out for every individual that could be brought into it, and then no child would reach the age of 16 and not know what a Sunday-school is.

Our strong schools should help the weaker ones. By so doing they will greatly help themselves also. Our small or weak schools should not fear or hesitate to ask for help. They will always find those who are ready to help them. A mutual benefit will be the result.

Thoughtful and timely addresses were given by Rev. P. W. Crannell and Rev. C. Myers.

Benediction by Rev. A. C. Lyon.

EVENING SESSION.

Rev. P. W. Crannell in the chair. Prayer by Rev. C. W. Hermon of the M. E. Church. Anthem by the choir.

Mrs. J. M. Carpenter, President of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Association, took the chair and introduced Dr. G. H. Brigham, who made an earnest and telling appeal in behalf of foreign missions.

Report of the Secretary, Miss Clara D. Sanford.

Miss Mary M. Day, of Madras, India, gave a very interesting account of the Telugu mission and women. A collection was taken amounting to $10.00. After singing by the choir, Dr. Halsey Moore, under the subject "Lessons from Ziklag," presented the claims of our Home Mission Society. Another anthem was sung by the choir, and Dr. G. H. Brigham closed the exercises with prayer and the benediction.

FRIDAY MORNING.

The devotional meeting was conducted by Rev S. T. Ford.

The Moderator read the 10th chapter of Luke, and, after the singing of "My faith looks up to Thee," Rev. C. R. Storey preached from Luke 10: 20,—"Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven."

Rev. H. S. Loyd, D. D., with characteristic energy, presented the cause of Ministerial Education, and Rev. A. L. Freeman the Claims of Cook Academy.

The Secretary commended the general use of the lesson helps of the Publication Society, of which specimen copies were furnished for distribution.

The Obituary committee presented the following report;

The letters from the churches again remind us that this world is not our permanent home. Death never dies, but is unceasingly active in garnering from the churches the ripened fruits of the Lord's harvest. During the past year, some of our best have been summoned to "the undiscovered country, from whose bourn no traveller returns."

Of the forty-one members of the different churches who have died, three had passed the ripe age of 90 years, and thirteen had lived beyond three score and ten. To these the passage in Scripture which describes the blessed effects of God's corrective discipline is applicable: "They came to the grave in a full age like as a shock of corn cometh in his season." But the remaining twenty-five, not so old in years, but perhaps ripe in experience, were called, before reaching the allotted measure of human life.

The average age of the whole number was 56 years. Special mention is made of the death of Rev. S. N. Westcott, who was the newly-chosen pastor of the Plank Road church. We also notice that the wife of our esteemed brother I. K. Brownson, long an invalid, has entered into her rest. Also our beloved brother Rev. J. W. Taggart, has passed through deep waters, being called to part with his life-long and helpful companion. To these brethren whose declining years add increased sense of their loss to their bereavement, we extend our heart-felt sympathy. "They a little longer wait, but how little none may know."

Manlius church has lost an office bearer, in the person of Dea. Dewey; and Elbridge feels deeply the departure, at the age of fifty-six, of the always helpful and faithful Dea. C. A. Crosman. Fayetteville church has been called to part with the largest number, seven in all; and following is First Syracuse, who have buried six, and Syracuse Central five Let us who remain hear the voice of Providence, and gird our loins for greater diligence, that, while individuals are passing from the church militant to the church triumphant, the kingdom of Christ may remain and increase more and more.

The following Trustees were chosen in place of those whose term of office had expired: F. D. Forward, J. M. Carpenter, and D. J. Dewey.

The committee on the next annual meeting recommended Fayetteville as the place, 10.30 A. M. the second Thursday of September, 1891, as the time, Rev. P. W. Crannell to preach the opening sermon, and Rev. E. M. Barber to be his alternate. Adopted. The Moderator announced the standing committees: and the delegates to the annual meeting of the State Convention were chosen, as found on page second.

The following resolution, offered by Rev. A. C. Lyon, was enthusiastically adopted by the Association:

Having learned that the executive board of the American Baptist Missionary Union has rescinded their action in re districting the fields of their district secretaries, therefore,—

Resolved, That we hereby express our approval of their re-consideration of their previous action, and our great satisfaction with the faithful and acceptable manner in which the Rev. G. H. Brigham, D. D., of Cortland, N. Y., has served the Missionary Union and the churches in his district for many years.

The following, presented by the Rev. W. C. Johnson, was also adopted:

Inasmuch as, though seeking the extension of the Kingdom of Heaven, we recognize the fact that we are citizens of our beloved country, and as such are deeply interested in all that pertains to its welfare and prosperity as related to human destiny, therefore,—

Resolved, That, as the demoralizing, debauching and destructive influence of the importation, manufacture and use of intoxicating beverages is the prolific source of many evils, and a most formidable barrier to the progress of the gospel of Christ, we declare our uncompromising opposition to the traffic, and our constant determination to strive, in every legitimate way, for its suppression by the strong arm of the law.

Rev. S. T. Ford moved:

That the pastors of this Association hold themselves in readiness, as far as consistent with other duties, to assist such churches as may wish their co-operation in special meetings.

This motion was approved, and the following resolution, offered by Rev. W. C. Johnson, was heartily adopted:

Inasmuch as everything has been done, that ingenuity could devise or human hands execute to contribute to the pleasure and profit of this associational gathering, therefore,—

Resolved, That we acknowledge, with gratitude, our obligation to this church and society for their cordial welcome and genial hospitality, and to the members of the choir for their appropriate and admirably rendered selections.

With tender feeling a few words were spoken and prayer offered by the Moderator, and the Association adjourned to meet at Fayetteville, September 10, 1891.

H. H. SANFORD,
SECRETARY.

THOMAS ROGERS,
MODERATOR.

ABSTRACT OF LETTERS.

Apulia.

Thanks to the Lord for his loving care. Death has not visited us. We unite with the Tully church in hiring a pastor. We maintain two prayer meetings each week, and a Sunday-school, with great interest. We have no church debt, and are hopeful of the future. Pray for us.

Baldwinsville—Delegates: The Pastor, Dea. McHuron, Mary Reed, Mrs. J. M. Stearns.

The year leaves us with an abiding sense of God's goodness, and an increased trust in his promises. Held revival meetings beginning with the week of prayer, and were blessed with the influences of the Spirit, and the conversion of precious souls—twenty being baptised during the year. The Y. P. S. C. E. doing good work for the Master. Sunday-school prosperous. Have organized a Sunday school in the 3d ward, under the superintendence of K. C. Monroe. We hope for God's continued blessing.

Bridgeport—No report.

Camillus—Delegates: The Pastor, Dea. D. A. Munro and wife, Dea. A. E. Smith and wife.

We give you a most cordial welcome to our church and to our homes. We have abundant reason for encouragement and thanksgiving. We rejoice in the prosperity of our sister churches, and it has been our prayer that this may prove a season of refreshing to all of the Lord's people who come.

Clay—Delegate: The Pastor.

No very marked progress. Our pastor has been laboring with faithfulness and zeal. In the winter a series of cottage meetings was begun, but discontinued from unfavorable weather. Our pastor preaches every other Sunday at the Lynn school-house, and conducts a Sunday-school. Thursday evening meeting sustained. We are praying for a revival. We ask financial aid.

Elbridge—Delegates: The Pastor, Benjamin F. Rhoades, and H. J. Smith.

The year ordinarily prosperous. All the services well sustained and profitable. Sunday-school interesting. Four of its number added to the church by baptism. The Society of Christian Endeavor, the "Ladies' Auxiliary," and the Mission Band have worked, each in a different field, but all for the glory of Christ and the good of men. Death has removed three of our number. Among them some of our truest and most faithful.

Fabius—Delegates: Rev. L. L. Gage, Dea. W. A. Clough, and Wm. E. Warner.

Rev. A. J. Brown closed his work here, the first Sunday in February. No regular services till July 1st, when Rev. L. L. Gage began to supply us. We hope for more complete union of sentiment and earnestness of spirit. Meetings are now well attended.

Fayetteville—Delegates: The Pastor, Rev. I. K. Brownson, and Dea. C. S. Hickson, M. D.

We are grateful for God's blessing during another year. Rev. John T. Vine labored with us three weeks. Many were converted and others quickened. In these results our pastor was largely instrumental. We cannot speak too highly of his faithfulness and zeal, and of the efficient help of his devoted wife. Sunday-school prosperous. Death has removed seven of our number. We invite the Association to meet with us next year.

Manlius—Delegates: The Pastor, and Mary A. Woodworth.

We thank God for all his goodness and mercy: for all the way in which he leads us: for the peace and harmony which we enjoy: for the continued means of grace: for the manifest tokens of good, as seen in our increased spirituality and the desire to embrace every opportunity to render a cheerful and willing service.

Marcellus—Delegates: The Pastor, Dea. S. H. Easton, George Wiltsie and wife, and Mrs. Anna Wright.

Amid discouragements we are not cast down. Our beloved pastor has earnestly preached the word with plainness and power. The appointments of the church have been met by the few faithful ones. Three hundred dollars have been spent in repairing the parsonage. Death and removals have diminished our numbers. We are hoping for greater prosperity in our Sunday-school. The meetings of our mission circle are full of interest. We are hoping and praying for a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit.

Memphis—Delegate: The Pastor.

We believe that the good seed has been faithfully sown, and that it will yet spring up and bear fruit to the glory of God. Sunday services well attended, prayer and covenant meetings interesting, and the Sunday-school well sustained. Preaching maintained at one out station. We ask for aid from the Convention.

North Manlius—Delegates: The Pastor, Mrs. F. D. Fenner, Dea. L. Brown, and C. N. Dewey.

Report no great spiritual growth. Rev. Huntington left us in May: we settled F. D. Fenner in August, The depression in agriculture severely affects the finances of the church and missions, but we are making a gigantic effort to uphold the standard of Jesus. Have lost one by death.

Onondaga.

During the year the interest has been sustained. While without a preacher we had sermons read. In March, Rev. J. E. Dodsley became our pastor. Meetings have been well attended. Our Sunday-school is interesting. The ladies have organized a Helping-hand society, and the young people a Busy-bee society. We rejoice that we are doing a little more for the Master and pray and hope for better things.

Plank Road—Delegates: Miss M. J. Millard, and G. Ernest Aldrich.

A year of trying vicissitudes. Rev. J. A. Baskwell resigned in October. The visit of Rev. R. E. Burton lifted the cloud of discouragement and revealed a silver lining. Sister Abigail Kincaid paid $195.25 and Dea. Homer Dunham the remainder of our debt. Rev. S. N. Westcott accepted our call, but was soon removed by death. Rev. A. B. Woodworth came May 18th. A Y. P. S. C. E. and a Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society have been organized. We ask your prayers.

Syracuse First—Delegates: The Pastor, Mrs. C. Myers, Rev. J. W. Taggart, Mrs. S. M. Gage, Mrs. A. J. Fox, Mrs. F. A. Peck, A. B. Schreuder, and Wm. Sanderson.

A year of harmony and increasing interest in all the services, and we trust that many have been brought to Christ. Under the leadership of our dear pastor Rev. Cortland Myers, our congregations are increasing, and the quickening and saving influences of the Spirit have been felt. We have made our church building more attractive and home-like and increased our facilities for better work. The heartiest co-operation exists between pastor and people. The Y. P. S. C. E. has been active for Christ and the church, even during the summer months. The Woman's Christian Work Society has rendered excellent service. Six have been removed by death who have been inseparably connected with our church history.

Syracuse Central—Delegates: The Pastor, Dea. E. C. Brayton, H. H. Sanford, Wm. Sears, H. G. Stone, M. C. Palmer, Mrs. C. L. Chandler, Mrs. C. A. Horton, Mrs. Whitford, Mrs. H. Benjamin.

During the first part of the year our attention was turned to financial questions. Union meetings were held during the week of prayer, and services were continued for two weeks in our own church. Sunday-school prospering under the leadership of Bro. F. S. Hall. Teachers' class, led by the pastor, well attended. Y. P. S. C. E. reorganized on a more strict basis. We are praying and looking for a great work of grace, in the conversion of souls, and in a general revival of spiritual interest.

Delaware St.—Delegates: The Pastor, Dea. D. F. Harris, Dea. J. A. Mackay, Mrs. C. H. Smith, Mrs. W. E. Masten.

The church is eighteen months old. A constituent membership of seventy has been more than doubled. About 280 have been enrolled in Sunday-school. About forty-five Baptists were found in the immediate vicinity who have never transferred their membership to any church in this city. We have paid all current expenses and have raised nearly $3,000 for a building fund. We are erecting a lecture room, on the rear of our church lot, to cost about $8,000, and to have a seating capacity of 425. Believing in great possibilities, the church is making a determined and self-sacrificing effort to realize the largest results for Christ. Grateful acknowledgement is made of entire exemption from death during the year.

First German—Delegates: Brn. T. Otto and Robert Hausmann.

The past year has not been with us one of great successes. Four however have been baptized, four received by letter and two by experience. The debt on our church, though still existing is steadily becoming less, and we hope that next year we may report its entire disappearance. Our Woman's Missionary Society has done good work, and the Y. P. S. C. E. appears to be flourishing. Our home Sunday-school is doing fairly, and the mission is prospering.

Fourth—Delegates: The Pastor, Mrs. J. S. Blanden, Rev. A. R. Palmer, and Dea. H. Soule.

Number diminished by removals. The resident membership consists of sixteen brethren and thirty-six sisters, having but little of wordly goods. Our pastor has faithfully preached the word and for two weeks was ably assisted by Rev. A. R. Palmer in special meetings. Good interest in the Sunday school. Service each Sunday P. M. at the LaFayette Av. Mission. The Y. P. S. C. E. has done good work.

Immanuel—Delegates: The Pastor, Dea. John M. Carpenter, E. A. Hill, Mrs. S. K. Smith, and Mrs. G. W. Barbour.

Rev. C. R. Storey has returned as our pastor. Besides preaching and Sunday-school, we have each Sabbath at 10 A. M. the "Yoke Fellows" prayer meeting, the Daughters of Zion at 3 P. M. and the Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.30, and after the preaching an inquiry meeting. Sunday-school room enlarged but still crowded. One of our young men has been licensed. Eighth Ward Mission prospered and blessed. Our numbers have been increased, our mortgage removed, addition paid for, but we need a more commodious house of worship.

Union—Delegate: The Pastor.

A year of increase. The Holy Spirit revived us and added to our numbers. Pastor and people are a unit in effort to spread the Savior's kingdom. We are about to secure a church lot. So far we have raised $500 among ourselves; but we need help from friends outside. We greatly need a place and conveniences suitable for the teaching of God's word. We ask for prayers and money.

Tully—Delegates: The Pastor, Bro. Franklin Cummings and wife.

The past year a time of faithful seed-sowing. A growing congregation and deepening interest. Sunday-school in good condition. Bro. E. W. Scammell, Superintendent. Have a Y. P. S. C. E., and an efficient Ladies' Aid Society. Financial obligations promptly discharged. A roll call in April was an enjoyable occasion. Two efficient members and generous givers have been called home. Bro. Hayford had been a member for fifty years.

Vesper.

No pastor. Preaching occasionally by Rev. N. W. Wolcott, of Tully. We earnestly desire the preached word and increased numbers.
